

RUNNING CONTROL EVENT No. 1.
Maximum number of points 15

Algorithm for conducting a "checkpoint" in the MOODLE educational environment, for each student there are three tasks, by the method of random distribution from a downloadable database of tasks (attached):

1. Glossary of terms: 2 terms -2 points;
2. Oral presentation (1 topic) –5 points;
3. Control questions for an interview - 2 questions - 8 points.

OBJECTIVE BASE

1. Glossary of terms

1. Economic resources - potential opportunities, means and benefits that can be used in production. Resources are of the following types: material, financial, labor, natural.
2. Intensive economic growth - an increase in production volumes due to a more rational use of available factors of production based on an increase in labor productivity and the achievements of scientific and technological progress.

2. Topics for oral presentation:

1. The system of economic relations in health care focused on improving the health of the population.

3. Test questions.

1. Economics of health care and its place in the structure of modern economic science.
2. Economic agents (subjects) of the healthcare sector and their interaction.