

RUNNING CONTROL EVENT No. 1.
Maximum number of points 15

Algorithm for conducting a "checkpoint" in the MOODLE educational environment, for each student there are three tasks, by the method of random distribution from a downloadable database of tasks (attached):

1. Glossary of terms: 2 terms -2 points;
2. Oral presentation (1 topic) –5 points;
3. Control questions for an interview - 2 questions - 8 points.

OBJECTIVE BASE

1. Glossary of terms

1. Microeconomics - a section of "Economic Theory" that studies economic relations at the level of enterprises, firms, workers, the behavior of consumers and producers in a competitive environment, that is, explores the interests and priorities of business entities.
2. World Economy - a section of "Economic Theory" that examines the global aspects of the development of economies of different countries, their interaction and mutual influence (export and import of goods and capital, international integration, international economic organizations, trade and balance of payments, exchange rates, labor migration) ...

2. Topics for oral presentation:

1. Microeconomic level of relations in health care.

3. Test questions.

1. Object and levels of analysis in health economics.
2. Definition and objectives of the discipline of health economics.