

RUNNING CONTROL EVENT No. 1.
Maximum number of points 15

Algorithm for conducting a "checkpoint" in the MOODLE educational environment, for each student there are three tasks, by the method of random distribution from a downloadable database of tasks (attached):

1. Glossary of terms: 2 terms -2 points;
2. Oral presentation (1 topic) –5 points;
3. Control questions for an interview - 2 questions - 8 points.

OBJECTIVE BASE

1. Glossary of terms

1. Economic theory is a science that studies economic patterns and relationships between people in the process of production, distribution, exchange and consumption of material and non-material benefits in conditions of limited resources.
2. Economic efficiency - the effectiveness of the activities of health authorities and institutions for the development of social production and the growth of national income, defined as the ratio of the amount of funds invested in the complex of treatment and prophylactic measures to reduce morbidity, disability, mortality, and the effect obtained, expressed by an increase (in value expression) of the total national product by increasing the level of people's livelihoods.

2. Topics for oral presentation:

1. Distinctive features of the functioning of autonomous, budgetary and state institutions.

3. Test questions.

1. Approaches to the analysis of the results of reforming the health care system.
2. Indicators of efficiency in health care: essence, types, methods.