

RUNNING CONTROL EVENT No. 1.
Maximum number of points 15

Algorithm for conducting a "checkpoint" in the MOODLE educational environment, for each student there are three tasks, by the method of random distribution from a downloadable database of tasks (attached):

1. Glossary of terms: 2 terms -2 points;
2. Oral presentation (1 topic) –5 points;
3. Control questions for an interview - 2 questions - 8 points.

OBJECTIVE BASE

1. Glossary of terms

1. Economic principles - restrictions that allow you to establish the framework of research, to highlight the originality of the subject and object of study; peculiar rules that provide the logic of economic thinking, reflecting the basic principles of solving economic problems (the principle of limited resources, the assumption "other things being equal", "costs - benefits", etc.)
2. Economic resources - potential opportunities, means and benefits that can be used in production. Resources are of the following types: material, financial, labor, natural.

2. Topics for oral presentation:

1. The subject of health economics.

3. Test questions.

1. Production and economic processes in health care.
2. The role of health care in preventing economic damage. Types of damage.